REUNION AT AN END

EMOTION SHOOK HIS FRAME

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Memphis, Tenn., June 10.—A frenzied demonstration of welcome by the men in Gray for the son of the man who conquered them marked the final scene of the 19th reunion of the United Confederate Veterans today. It took place during the parade. In the reviewing stand stood General Frederick Dent Grant, of the United States army. The first few divisions in line passed with only a limited number recognizing the son of the man who accomplished the surrender of Lee. But finally a cavalry division appeared and its commanding office, General Tyler, of Hickman, Ky., old and grizzled, peered steadily at General Grant a moment. Then he turned in his saddle and yelled:

"Come on, you kids! Here's General Grant come to life again in his son."

With one of the old time rebel yells, the division remnants of Forest's cavalry charged upon the stand and jostled one another for an opportunity to shake the hand of the son of their old time enemy. From that moment every gray clad veterans who could reach the stand rushed up to shake hands with General Grant. The stoky army officer's gray eyes filled with tears and his shoulders shook with emotion as he murmured "God bless you all, boys! God bless you," giving each a cordial hand grasp.

Battle torn banners were grouped at his feet and waved over his head salute. One old officer rode up to the stand, seized General Grant's hand and kissed him on the cheek exclaiming: "God bless you, boy! I fought your father, of whom you are the image, but he was a gallant, magnanimous foe, and I love his son."

More than one veteran was in tears as he saw the famous Federal chieftain's son so touched by the reception. It is doubtful if any other Northern man, even a President, ever received such an ovation as that which was spontaneously given to General Grant by the Confederate Veterans today.

The parade over, the reunion was practically ended and veterans' special trains began to leave the city at 2 P. M.

The ball of the sponsors, maids and matrons tonight was the one big social event of the reunion. It was opened by the famous Southern Cross Drill, and one thousand couples participated in the dance, despite the suffocating heat.

Clad in the rough gray homespun which they wore—some time to victory but finally to defeat—in the sixties; shoulder to shoulder with men who bore uncomplainingly with them the awful hardships and deprivations of a cruel war, ten thousand veterans marched in what was probably the last big parade in which they will ever participate. Some of them wore straggling beards as gray as their

GOLD MEDALS FOR AVIATORS

For Their Conquest of the Air President Taft Presents Gold Medals to Wright Brothers—Inventors Were Lionized.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 10.—The appreciation, good will and congratulations of the American people were today extended to Wilbur and Orville Wright, the American aviators, by the President of the United States.

The occasion was the presentation of the gold medals awarded to the Wright brothers by the Aero Club of America to commemorate the conquest of the air.

In the presence of distinguished statesmen, foreign diplomats, the members of the Cabinet, noted scientists, prominent aeronauts and aviators, the two inventors of the first successful flying machine heavier than air, received the first public recognition of their achievement from their fellow countrymen.

President Taft expressed keen admiration for their work. The Wrights were introduced to the President by Representative Herbert Parsons, of New York. A. Holland Forbes, the winner of the recent National balloon race and acting president of the Aero Club of America, turned the medals over to the President on behalf of the Aero Club.

Miss Catherine Wright, sister of the aeroplanists, accompanied her brothers and was quite as much lionized.

A luncheon was given at the Cosmos Club to the Wrights and the visitng members of the Aero Club of America by the Aero Club of Washington.

It is expected that the flights of the Wright aeroplane at Fort Myer will be resumed on June 21.

In presenting the medals President Taft said:

"I am glad—perhaps at a delayed hour—to show that in America it is not true that 'a prophet is not without honor save in his own country.' It is especially gratifying thus to note a great step in human discovery by paying honor to men who bear it so modestly. You made this discovery by a course that we of America like to feel is distinctively American—by keeping your nose right at the job until you had accomplished what you had determined to do.

"I had a predecessor who, if aeronautics had proceeded as far when he left office as they have today, would not only have gone down under the water in a submarine boat, but would have gone up into the air in a flying machine. There be some good reasons why some Presidents have not figured in aeronautics. I see that these gentlemen who have flown in the air are constructed more on the plan of the birds than some of us.

"Many great discoveries have come by accident but you gentlemen planned what you wished to find and then you worked it out until you found it. I congratulate you on the result. I congratulate you on the recognition that you have received from all the crowned heads of Europe and I congratulate you that in receiving it you maintained the modest and dignified demeanor worthy of American citizenship."

HEARTRENDING ACCIDENT.

Young Lady Drowned While Out Rowing on River.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 10.—By the capsizing of a skiff in which eleven young people were taking an outing on Broad river Tuesday evening, Miss Louise Lynch, 17 years old, daughter of County Treasurer Charles M. Lynch, was drowned and her sister, Evelyn, barely escaped the same fate, being resuscitated after an hour's unconsciousness. The accident occurred near Twitty's bridge, five miles east of Rutherfordton. In the darkness the boat became entangled in an overhanging bush and in endeavoring to extricate it, one of the young men caused the craft to capsize and the occupants were plunged into deep water. Heroically the young men in the party set about rescuing the girls and successfully landed all save the elder Miss Lynch, who sank for the last time before aid could reach her. The younger Miss Lynch was restored after desperate efforts and is still seriously ill as the result of her experience.

KILLED WIFE'S ABDUCTOR

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Brandford, Fla., June 10.—C. M. Murphy, a wealthy contractor and planter, shot Paxton Carver, Murphy's overseer, at his farm at Burtinton while the latter sat in a coach of a passenger train as it stopped here today at noon. Carver was carried from the train to the depot platform where he died twenty minutes later. Sheriff Richardson, of Live Oak, Fla., who was on the train, arrested Murphy.

According to Murphy's story Carver and Mrs. Murphy eloped from the Burton farm yesterday. The husband learned of this, he said, and learned that Carver was returning to Burtinton to get some of his belongings which the hurry of the elopement caused him to leave there. Murphy met the train and killed Carver. Both men are well known in this part of Florida and have relatives here. Carver was unmarried. A preliminary trial will be given Murphy tomorrow. He and Mrs. Murphy have several children.

ON TARIFF MEASURE

Progressive Republicans in Senate go Down to Defeat.

CAN'T BREAK ALDRICH RANKS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 10.—Time and time again Senator Dolliver and eight or nine others of the so-called progressive Republicans went down to defeat today in their efforts to break the ranks of the Aldrich forces on the wool schedule of the tariff bill. The Iowa Senator occupied the floor the greater part of the day and offered numerous amendments looking to the reduction of the finance committee rates, but in each instance the amendments were voted down and the committee sustained.

The first of Mr. Dolliver's suggestions had for its object the confining to the wool in them the duty on so-called yarns which are only part wool, and after considerable spirited discussion in which Messrs. Dolliver and Warren were the principal participants, the amendment was defeated by a vote of 31 to 43.

In the course of the debate, Mr. Warren contended that the object of this provision was to prevent the importation of cheap cloths but this was met by a suggestion from Mr. Dolliver that there might be some people who would be benefitted by having cheap clothes brought in from abroad. On this vote Mr. Dolliver was supported by Senators Beveridge, Bristow, Brown, Clapp, Cummins, LaFollette and Nelson, while Senator McEnery, of Louisiana, was the only Democratic Senator who voted with the Republicans against the provision.

Many of Mr. Dolliver's amendments were along the same lines as the first and were intended to carry out the principle that in fixing a duty on mixed cloths it should be applicable only to the wool in the cloths.

Senator Aldrich objected on the ground that it would be impossible to determine the proportion of the constituents in such articles and that, therefore, the provision was impracticable. On the entire series the vote was practically the same and in no instance did any of the Republican Senators change.

One of Mr. Dolliver's amendments was identical in terms with a privision suggested by Mr. Aldrich as a part of the McKinley tariff bill of 1888, but the Rhode Island Senator refused to accept it, saying that the conditions were entirely different now from what they were in those days.

In the course of a discussion between Senators Aldrich and Owen of the duty on blankets, the fact was brought out that blankets pay at the rate of 180 per cent. ad valorem. In this connection the chairman of the finance committee was given opportunity to acept a general provision prohibiting any rates in the schedule above 100 per cent., but he declined to do so because, as he said, it might let in foreign woolen manufactures.

The debate throughout the day was good natured and Mr. Dolliver discussed polka dots, corn plasters, home mottoes, and kindred subjects with much humor. He seemed to have real feeling over the possible tears in the eyes of the Irish potato.

The wool schedule occupied the attention of the Senate throughout the entire day and on this account consideration of the proposed income tax, which had been set for today, was postponed until tomorrow.

At 5:30 P. M. the Senate took a recess until 8 o'clock.

The evening session was devoted to speeches by Senators Gore and LaFollette, both in advocacy of lower wool duties. Mr. LaFollette offered a numebr of amendments to the wool schedule. At 10:50 o'clock the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

The House.

Washington, June 10.—After being in session eleven minutes, the House of Representatives today adjourned until Monday. Little business was undertaken.

At the annual commencement exercises of the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln yesterday, Senator-elect John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, suggested as a solution of the race problem the distribution of the negroes between the various sections. He did not advise the possible removal and distribution of the negroes but simply that the present drift from the South to the North be not discouraged.

An unidentified tramp was killed and two other persons were injured yesterday when a northbound freight train on the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad jumped the track because of spreading tracks and 17 cars were piled into a culvert near Painter, Va. B. P. Savage, of Norfolk, is said to have been seriously injured.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

WORE PEARLS AND DIAMONDS

Husband Says She Was Extravagant, Intemperate and Guilty of Misconduct—Pretty Woman Denies All the Charges.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 10.—It was a smaller and slighter Katherine Clemmons Gould who took the stand today in her suit for separation from her husband, Howard Gould, than the public remembered; and her loss in weight was becoming. Mrs. Gould wore mourning for her father and the sober black of her gown and her long gloves was relieved only by the double string of pearls at her neck and the flash of the diamonds in her long hand-purse of black leather. She seemed nervous at times but so far as the presence of her husband was concerned she seemed not to know that he was in the same room, although he sat but a few feet from her throughout the day's session.

Justice Dowling, hearing the case, will make his finding without the aid of jury. Mrs. Gould alleges that her husband deserted her without just cause on July 16, 1906. Howard Gould answers that his justification was the habits of the plaintiff; that since he left her he has made her an allowance of $25,000 a year but that she is extravagant, intemperate and has been guilty of misconduct. The wife denies the charges and asks for an allowance of $120,000 a year to enable her to live in the manner to which her husband had accustomed her.

"During the years that you were living at Castle Gould," asked Clarence Shearn, Mrs. Gould's counsel, "how large an establishment did you have?"

"From 15 to 18 servants in the house, from 10 to 12 around the estate and 18 or 20 gardeners," answered Mrs. Gould.

In answer to questions she rattled off the amounts her husband had allowed her month by month.

"Mr. Gould says that in eight years he paid you $776,000," said Delancy Nicoll, counsel for Mr. Gould.

"I gave him credit for more," was the imperturbable comment.

Mr. Nicoll tried to bring out discrepancies in various statements of expenditures. He reeled off a long list of figures and dates, Mrs. Gould listening patiently. At the end she asked:

"What are you talking about?"

"Did you know that at the time of the separation there were bills for $112,000 outstanding against you?"

"I haven't the slightest idea."

Mrs. Gould was asked if her expenditures at Castle Gould included any liquors.

"Yes," she said, "Everything. I bought the apples, onions, potatoes, vinegar, sugar, salt, flour, horse feed and chicken feed."

Testimony to show the manner of life in which the witness was accustomed to live was further adduced by counsel. She showed every willingness to co-operate and told with relish of the magnificent yacht Niagara, with its crew of eighty men, of the salons with seats for sixty guests and decorations that in one room alone cost $52,000.

Of more recent events, touched on later in the day, she could not recall. She couldn't recall seeing Dustin Farnum, the actor whose name figures in an affidavit introduced as evidence in 1908 or 1909, but she was positive she had not seen him within a month. Details of money in her own name and how she came to own a farm in Virginia were hard to elicit and the witness began to show signs of being tired and even of some temper. The court closed, however, with her still on the stand and smiling sweetly, with prospects that she would continue her testimony for the better part of tomorrow. She was the only witness during the day.

MARRIED IN SAMPSON

Miss Penelope Wright Bride of Dr. Lewis R. Wilson.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., June 10.—Miss Penelope Bryan Wright and Dr. Louis R. Wilson were married today at 3:30 P. M., at Coharie, the country home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bettie V. Wright, near Clinton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. A. Smoot, of Wilmington, N. C. The bride wore white satin trimmed with lace. She wore pearls and carried bride's roses and was given away by her brother, W. I. Wright. Miss Bettie C. Wright, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and R. N. Wilson, a brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were J. G. Murphy and I. C. Wright. The bride is one of Sampson's fairest and most highly cultured daughters and Dr. Wilson is connected with the State University at Chapel Hill.

Effective Saturday, June 12th, the Seaboard will inaugurate parlor car service between Charlotte and Wilmington on trains 39 and 40. 2t.

IMMIGRATION PROBLEMS

Californian Says Menace From Japanese and Chinese Influx is Greater Than Ever—Slave Trade in Oriental Women.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Buffalo, N. Y., June 10.—Immigration, with all its involved problems and the question of just how far vested authority should go in breaking up or sustainng the integrity of families where vice and crime exist, offered two absorbing topics for the second day's sessions of the thirty-sixth National Conference of Charities and Corrections here today.

The "Yellow Peril" caused a slight flurry in the section devoted to immigrants but the debate, acromonious at times ended with the best of feeling among the delegates. W. A. Gats, secretary of the Board of Charities of San Francisco, declared that the Yellow Peril was more of a menace today than at any time in the past. "It is also gravely doubted," declared Mr. Gates, "if Japan is faithfully keeping the 'gentleman's agreement,' entered into with the United States regarding the restriction of th immigration of the coolie class. A similar agreement entered into with Great Britain with regard to British Columbia has been deliberately violated. Japan recognizes no coolie class. Besides this 800 Japanese and 5,000 Chinese illegally entered the country over the border of Mexico and Canada in the last year and a half." The slave trade in Oriental women, Mr. Gates said, is worse today than at any previous time.

Cyrus L. Sulzenberger, president of the United Hebrew Societies of New York, took issue with Mr. Gates. "The condition of the slave trade in Oriental women on the coast is an indictment of your own white women," declared Mr. Sulzenberger. "They should have wiped it out long ago."

"You have just as rotten a Chinese hell in your Mott and Pell streets in New York, as any in San Francisco," retorted Mr. Gates with some show of heat. Not only brown girl slaves are held in bondage there but police reports within a week show that half a dozen white girls have been found there."

Other speakers in the immigrant section of the conference were David A. Pressler, of the Industrial Removal Society of New York, and Miss Grace Abbott, director of the League for the Protection of Immigrants.

Joseph Lee, vice president of the Massachusetts Civic League, Boston, spoke on "The Intergirty of the Family."

ARTILLERY MANEUVERS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fort Caswell, N. C., June 11.—The morning with the State troops and regulars today was devoted to artillery drill by the militia, doing the plotting and manning the guns. The work was the finest that could possibly be expected and many a flattering remark was made by the regulars on the excellent work of the State troops.

The boys of the Wilmington company are still enjoying camp life. Reveille is sounded at 5:30 A. M., followed by calisthenics which give them a good appetite for the delicious viands served by Sergeant Peschau and his efficient corps of cooks. Sergeant Holmes and his men on the 8-inch guns are making an enviable record which no other militia company will be able to equal and Sergeant Bell and squad at the observing tower are exceptionally fine in their work, making it almost impossible for the enemy's fleet to get in striking distance of the post The company has been honored by having its men from the guard detail appointed as orderly to the Major every day. Comments are heard daily from the regular camp as to the fine military bearing of the men. Beginning Monday the troops will start firing the guns with service charges and judging from the way the men are doing with the dummy charges, they will add to their laurels by making several bulls' eyes. The boys are looking forward with much pleasure to a visit from their wives, friends and sweethearts on Sunday. Preparations are being made to serve them all with a delicious dinner.

DEVASTATED BY HAIL STORM.

Crops in Section of Virginia Completely Destroyed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Buchanan, Va., June 10.—The neighborhood of Collierstown, in Rockbridge, 12 miles west of Lexington, was visited by the most destructive hail storm ever known in that section of the State late yesterday. Over an area ten miles in length and more than a half mile wide vegetation was totally destroyed. Wheat, corn and garden vegetables were driven to the earth. Hail drifted in ravines to the depth of two feet or more. Farms were absolutely ruined, all the soil being washed from the uplands.

Parties from the scene of devastation today declare that such desolation extending for miles was never before witnessed by the oldest inhabitants of the country.

An idea can be obtained as to the great damage, when out of entire fields of heading wheat, not a single stalk was left standing. The loss will amount to many thousands of dollars.

Wilmington won the game yesterday afternoon from Rocky Mount in the fifth inning on a trio of safeties by Levy, Nichols and Jayes and a sacrifice by Kite, but threw it away in the eighth and ninth when Johnson's single, Sharp's error and a brace of safeties by Krebs and James in the former, tied the score, and the game was cinched in the ninth when a sacrifice by Johnson and a single by Moran let in another tally with one man down. It was at best a very indifferent game and the score was 4 to 3.

Sexton was on the slab for the locals and although he was touched up for eleven hits, these were well scattered. Smith on the slab for the visitors, yielded the Sailors but six and these were split up except in the fifth inning. Wilmington's outfield was in poor shape, Brodie not yet having recovered from a bad sprain of the ankle and Levy being still out of form on account of a bad knee. Nichols at first and Accorsini at short, two of the new men, showed up well, especially the former. The game was witnessed by 600 people, there being many Rocky Mount sympathizers in the grandstand, an excursion having reached here from the Railroad town at 12:30 o'clock bringing 300 people, 200 white and the remainder colored. The train was in charge of Captain E. Cliff Cohen, traveling passenger agent, and the visitors enjoyed the day at the seashore and at the beach.

Johnson walked; Hemp hit safely; Krebs sacrificed; Walsh safe on fielder's choice, Johnson out by Smith; on attempted double steal, Hemp was out at plate. For Wilmington Sharp was out second to first; Accorsini out pitcher to first and Smith fanned.

Second—Ogara led off with a single to centre; James safe on fielder's choice, Ogara out at second; Lambert dropped one behind second; Moran hit to Sharpe and Lambert and Moran were out on a beautiful double. For Wilmington Brodie started with a single to left and Streaser ran for him; Levy was safe on fielder's choice, Streaser out at second; Sneeden ran for Levy and was sacrificed by Kite; Nichols lined out to right.

Third—Smith flew out to short; Johnson fouled out to third; Hemp went safe on error of short and went to second; Krebs fanned. Wilmington: Jayes and Sexton out second to first; Sharp out catcher to first.

Fourth—Walsh and Ogara out short to first; James singled to left and stole second but Lambert was out to first unassisted. Wilmington: Accorsini fanned; Smith out third to first; Brodie flew out on difficult catch in left.

Fifth—Moran singled over centre; Smith bunted out to first; Johnson hit to second too hot to handle; Hemp out to first and Johnson was out on unassisted double. Wilmington: Levy hit to short too hot to handle; Jayes running for him; Kite sacrificed; Nichols singled too hot for short to handle, Accorsini goes to third while Jayes came to bat; Jayes up and Nichols stole second; Jayes singled to left and Kite scored for Levy; Sexton up and on throw to second Nichols scored and Jayes also came in on wild throw catcher to third; Sexton walked; Sharp hit to short and Sexton was out at second and Sharp at first on double.

Sixth—Krebs fanned; Walsh out third to first on difficult stop; O'Gara out to first unassisted. Wilmington: Accorsini out to first; Smith out short to first; Brodie hit by pitched ball and Nichols runs for him, stealing second; Levy fanned.

Seventh—James safe on error of first; Lambert flew to centre; Moran to first; James safe on error of first and stole second but Smith was out pitcher to first. Wilmington: Kite started with a hit to left; Nichols sacrificed; Jayes fouled out to catcher; Sexton out to first.

STAY IN THE SOUTH YOUNG MAN.

The star has frequently urged young men to stay in the South, and has urged others to come here to aid those already here in utilizing the varied resources of this country, and especially of North Carolina. There is room here for the native Carolinian as well as the newcomer, for not only is North Carolina earnestly inviting homeseekers but all other Southern States are doing the same. If there were not room here for all, there would be no movement to induce immigration. Certainly we need the home young men as well as an influx of young men from abroad, bringing his capital, his muscle, his industry and his enterprise.

It is well to keep before our young men the address of President Finley, of the Southern Railway to the students of the University of North Carolina. President Finley is in a position to speak of opportunities in the South and in his address at the State University he gave expression to some views which were distinguished by sound sense and which should be pondered by all of the young men of the South. Among other things he said:

"In whatever career the young man of the South may select, he will find opportunities at home among his own people. He will not find it necessary to go either to the North or to the West. As time goes on he will find these opportunities in increasing abundance, for the economic strength of the South, already great, is constantly increasing.

"The wealth of our section in natural resources is being supplemented by increased financial strength, and Southern communities are becoming better able to finance their own enterprises and less dependent on outside capital.

"The South needs every one of her young men, and those who are faithful to her she will bountifully reward."

The Star has many times before declared what such a well known authority as President Finley has declared to be his observation. The New Orleans States agrees with him and adds this about the matter:

"What Mr. Finley says is true. Not only does the South need every one of her young men, but within the next few years she will give them greater opportunities than it is possible for them to find in any other section of the country. Marvelous as has been the South's progress in the last two decades, the fact remains that she is only at the beginning now of what will be a period of tremendous development. Because it will be many years before she has a population sufficient to overcrowd her there will be great opportunities for those who seek them.

"This is a fact which is recognized not only by Mr. Finley but by railroad managers, financiers and leaders of industry generally. All of them predict that in the next twenty years the greatest development the country will witness will occur in the Southern States. Therefore, if the young men of the South know what is good for them they will remain at home where they are needed now, and will be needed still more in the near future."

In commenting upon the remarks of President Finley the Washington Post says:

"A whole volume of sound sense is compressed into a few words by President Finley of the Southern railway, in his address to the students of the University of Carolina. * * * Great as has been the growth of the South, that section is only at the beginning of its career of development The South is not overcrowded with population and can for many years yet furnish opportunities for all who earnestly seek them. Far-sighted financiers, railroad men, and other leaders of industry are almost unanimous in predicting that the greatest development of the next two decades in this country will occur in the South."

BURDENING INDUSTRIES.

Some years ago our cities and towns were doing everything in their power to induce the establishment of new industries in their midst. Some communities went so far as to exempt new industries from taxation, and the glad hand was given to the man who came along and established a factory or organized a company or corporation to promote some new enterprise.

We have always believed, however, that it is not exemption and special privileges that attract capital and encourage the establishment of industries, but rather that fair treatment of companies and corporations after they are established is the most satisfactory guarantee that the financier or promoter asks. The first consideration, of course, which attracts new industries is the material advantage of a city or town with reference to shipping facilities, the nearness and abundance of the raw supply, and other inducements that meet the nature of the enterprise, but with everything else favorable, promoters of enterprises expect fair treatment.

Charlotte has for some time been the headquarters of the Southern Power Company, a large and important corporation, but through some ill-advised action of the Board of Aldermen of that city, the corporation was recently looking for another location. However, the action which was about to run a big concern out of the city was not taken, as we may infer from the following editorial reference in The Charlotte Chronicle of Wednesday:

"The Board of Aldermen did a very wise thing in receding from the proposition to impose an extra tax on manufacturing enterprises. The factories, mills and shops are the life of Charlotte. They give employment to a large proportion of the population and the people so employed pour their money into the trade channels of the city. The city wants more factories and to this end should use all efforts to attract rather than to repel them."

Charlotte is naturally and logically the place for the headquarters of the Southern Power Company, and it is gratifying to learn that the Charlotte Aldermen ultimately showed a disposition to do the right thing.

The taxes in our cities should be made as low as possible, and municipalities will find that the smaller the burden on capital and enterprises, the more likely they are to be attracted.

The Chicago Guggenheims have gotten their several marriages in such a muddle that the original Mrs. Guggenheim is under the impression that her marriages subsequent to divorce have not been legal, so she is endeavoring to have herself reverted back to Guggenheim. Guggenheim is now worth millions, hence it may be worth something to undergo reversion.

When you take a notion to lecture other people for "inconsistency," either political or otherwise, be sure your own record is either straight or else has been forgotten. The faulty memory of the Hon. William J. Bryan and the very apparent unforgettingness of Senator Furnifold M. Simmons reminds us of this.

Senator Dolliver threw it up to the predatorists of the Senate that a rag trust exists. Even if it's so, the Iowa Senator doesn't lack for a supply of raw material when it comes to "chewing the rag."

A love letter 2,000 years old has been discovered in Italy, an archaeologist reports. This shows that some woman held on to it to the very last.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—It may be that C. L. Stevens had something to do with the wrecking of that Newbern bank, but we are not going to believe it until we find out more about it.—Durham Herald.

—Those bothersome Japs! Just when other nations are about to perfect their airships, the little man of Nippon sails along with a perfected airship destroyer.—Columbia State.

—Another member of the Thaw family has married a titled foreigner. Evidently there was no truth in those stories about the dissipation of the Thaw fortune.—Columbia State.

—Twelve months on the roads was a blind tiger sentence in Wilmington this week. If such sentences are generally imposed and carried out, the traffic will end. As a rule, a fine is but a license.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—An effort is being made in Massachusetts to have a bill pass the legislature making it a misdemeanor for a waitress to be employed in any place where liquor is sold. It is said that this would affect upward of 1,000 women in Boston alone.—Philadelphia Evenning Times.

—When you look at it from a common sense standpoint you can readily see that Mr. Simmons is in a position to talk back at Mr. Bryan. Their records run that Simmons got what he went after, while Bryan got left. The Senator from his high perch can flop his wings and crow over the fact that while he is in the United States Senate, the "Peerless one" is in the soup.—Clinton News Dispatch(Republican.)

—It seems that Judge Adams is not going to comply with the demands of Colonel Lusk in calling the State Committee together, but the people are demanding it, and if Judge Adams, as State Chairman is afraid to call the committee together he should resign and let the people name one who has the nerve to do it. The Republicans of North Carolina should meet and denounce the President for the insults he has heaped upon them. Let him know that we are made of the right kind of metal.—Clinton News Dispatch (Republican.)

—They have had somewhat of a ruckus over the drug store license question, in Concord. The county attorney advised the commissioners not to grant license to the stores, but to individual pharmacists, that being his interpretation of the law. Lawyers for the druggists fought against such a plan and there was an all-day argument at the meeting of the board. Finally, an adjournment was taken to the following day, when the commissioners decided to issue license to the stores, as by the old plan. One preacher appeared before the board and protested against granting license of any kind to druggists, but no attention was paid to him, all interest having been centered in the contention over the form of the license. The proposition, we suppose, was to make the individual druggist responsible for any violation of the law that might occur under the license he holds, but we fail to see where any advantage would come in. Under the regular license system the entire firm or corporation can be bagged and that ought to be sufficient for either cengeance or justice, or both.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—"Algy, dear," remarked a young wife to her husband, "I wish you would taste this milk and see if it is perfectly sweet. If it's the least bit sour I mustn't give any of it to dear little Fido!"—Judy.

—"The awkwardest thing I ever saw," said the cynical bachelor, "was a woman handling a gun." "Evidently", rejoined the fair widow, "you never saw a man handling a baby."—Chicago News.

—"It is said that the oceans are slowly drying up." "Yes," complained the Englishman, "but Germany is likely to get her fleet of Dreadnoughts completed long before the seas are empty."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—The ancient Egyptian sculptor was chiseling the mouth of the sphinx. "I am making the smile that won't come off," he said. But, alas! He neglected to make a nose that wouldn't come off.—Chicago Tribune.

—"To be in the swim, I paid $4 admission to hear that new pianist last night." "Well, do you begrudge it?" "Yes, I do. He turned out to be the fellow I complained to the police for thumping the piano all day and all night in the next flat."—Judge.

Woman's Tonic

When you're tired and nervous, worn out and weak, you need a good tonic. You need a strength-giving, invigorating medicine. Naturally, you want something of known merit—a standard preparation.

Try Cardui, the popular medicine for women. This preparation has been successfully used, by thousands of women, for more than half a century. Letters come to us daily, telling of the benefit and relief Cardui has given. These letters recommend Cardui for headache, dizziness, fainting, pains in the side or limbs, and for all those troubles from which only women suffer.

Note this letter from Mrs. R. C. Berry, 124 N. Borke St., Kansas City, Kans. She writes: "I am more than pleased with the results obtained from Cardui. I have taken 5 bottles and am in much better health than ever before. I was troubled with female disorders and suffered so much that I could not be left alone. I found relief in Cardui and keep it in the house all the time."

Cardui is a purely vegetable preparation, scientifically prepared and consisting only of harmless ingredients. It's a safe, reliable medicine.

Try Cardui. It's the tonic you need.

For sale at all druggists.

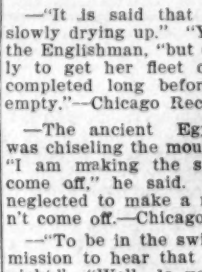
SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound



Louisville, Ky.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a world of good and I cannot praise it enough. I suffered from irregularities, dizziness, nervousness, and a severe female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored me to perfect health and kept me from the operating table. I will never be without this medicine in the house."—Mrs. SAM'L LEE, 2523 Fourth St., Louisville, Ky.

Another Operation Avoided.

Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from female troubles, and my doctor said an operation was my only chance, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me without an operation."—LENA V. HENRY, R. F. D. 3.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

Wilmington, N. C., June 9th, 1909.

To the SMALL MERCHANT,

Dear Sir:—If you buy money orders in making remittances, or register letters containing currency, you are practicing extravagance, and at the same time people to whom you remit form the impression that you are not well informed as to proper business methods.

If you will open a checking account at this bank and pay every bill with your own check, you will not only save many dimes and quarters that now go to waste, but will establish yourself with the only class of merchants which succeed—they all use their own checks in remitting.

There is another and more valuable feature—the bank will practically keep your cash account, and the bank book, balanced each month, will show how much money you took in, how and to whom you paid it, and how much is left.

Yours truly,
THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK.

STIEFF

Official Piano of the Jamestown Exposition. "The Piano with the sweet tone." Can you believe what you see with your own eyes, and hear with your own ears? Is it not a notable fact that the STIEFF Piano has been and is being used by every Musical fete in this city of late? Is it because they cannot get other pianos? Not by any means, it is because the STIEFF is the piano of quality, rich, melodious, easy of action, responsive, brilliant without harshness and especially adapted to accompany the human voice. Artists recognize these unsurpassed qualities of the STIEFF.

We also make the Matchless Shaw and sell it to you direct from factory at one profit, just as we sell the STIEFF; easy payments if you wish—you would not feel the cost, which is very small for such high-grade instruments. We sell cheaper pianos, which are fully guaranteed. Call at your home piano store and select the one you like best. We will take your old piano or organ in exchange and allow full value. Investigate. RAILWAY MAIL CLERK TRIED

J. W. Coltrane Pleaded Guilty and Wants to Pay Fine—Peonage Indictment Thrown Out. State B. & L. League.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—J. W. Coltrane, a former railway mail clerk between Greensboro and Goldsboro, today entered a plea of guilty of rfling letters and packages. Pleas for mercy were made before Judge Connor by ex-Judge W. P. Bynum, Greensboro, ex-Governor and ex-Judge R. W. Winston in an effort to get the young man off with a heavy fine rather than a prison sentence.

Judge Connor was inclined to the idea that the law forced him to sentence to a prison term but on suggestion from the District Attorney that the matter was discretionary with the Judge, Judge Connor deferred sentence to tomorrow. Coltrane is out under bond. He proved a very high character up to this trouble and having an aged mother dependent upon him for support were the special reasons pressed for a fine without imprisonment.

Judge Connor threw out of court the indictment against Hunter D. Ellington, of Johnston county, for peonage in that an old negro, Bryant Powell, had been committed to Ellington by his father-in-law, Justice of the Peace Holt, to work out a claim growing out of a horse trade. It appeared to the Judge that there had been mistakes on the part of the justice rather than intentional wrong by either.

The annual address of President Wittkowsky, and the annual report of Secretary Keesler, both of Charlotte, were especially notable features of the sixth annual convention of the League of Building and Loan Associations today. President Wittskowsky declared that the year 1908 will ever stand out as a bright beacon light and point to building and loan associations as safe harbors for investors, especially the wage earners for the reason that while many great financial institutions the country over tottered and fell during the great panic there was throughout the United States only one failure of a building and loan association. He declared that, unfortunately this failure was in North Carolina and was due to what he declared to be the "reprehensible practice" of borrowing money with which to meet applications for loans. He took occasion to say that there were other associations in the State that were doing this very thing and that the practice should by all means be stopped. He declared his purpose to call this matter up later in the meeting for some adverse action by the league.

President Wittskowsky recommended a system of inspection by the State of the building and loan associations separate and distinct from the bank examining system. A Building and Loan Bureau, such as is already in vogue in many States was endorsed. He declared that in the past he had opposed in the sessions of the League the idea of insuring borrowers in building and loan associations but that further investigation had brought about his conversion to the system since it seemed that this could be done on such a very reasonable basis. Therefore, he recommended that a committee be appointed to report to the League either at this session or the next annual meeting as to the introduction of this system into this State.

Secretary Connor, of the Teacher's Assembly, announces that Dr. W. P. Few, of Trinity College, will deliver the address that had previously been assigned to Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, of Virginia, at the Assembly next week, Dr. Eggleston finding that it will be impossible for him to attend. The Assembly opens Tuesday at Morehead City with the annual address by President D. H. Hill, of the A. & M. College. Governor Kitchin will deliver an address Tuesday evening, Secretary Connor says indications point to one of the most largely attended session of the 26 years of the Assembly's history.

There is also a charter for the Gastonia Coco-Cola Bottling Company, capital $1,800 by G. H. Marvin and others.

A letter from B. H. Rowl, chief of the Dairying Division of the United States Department of Agriculture, congratulates the State Commissioner of Agriculture, on the splendid development in this regard being made in North Carolina and thanking him for the hearty and liberal co-operation being given by the State Board of Agricvulture to the work in this direction by the government." He says. "The results of the dairy field in North Carolina has been so good that we can call the attention of other States to them, and now we desire to call not only the attention of other States to the results of the work but to the kind of support your department has given this work. Your department, therefore, in undertaking this pioneer work, is setting an example which we hope to induce every Southern State to follow."

Would You Think of Eating Salt Pork Every Day?

Lard is hog fat—so is salt pork. Both are indigestible and often unhealthy. Until Cottolene was placed on the market, people had to use lard for all frying and shortening purposes—they had no recourse. But now there is no excuse for eating lard-soaked pastry and jeopardising your digestion with lard-soaked food.

Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure, healthful, digestible. It contains no hog fat. Even a dyspeptic can eat and enjoy Cottolene food without the after-pangs of indigestion.

Once give Cottolene a fair trial and you'll banish lard from your kitchen forever.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

ARRESTED IN FLORIDA

Chief of Police N. J. Williams received a telegram yesterday stating that Ben Barge, colored, wanted here for the murder of James Phifer, colored just above Ruth Hall, about a year ago, had been arrested in Jacksonville, Fla., and was fully identified by the description sent out from the local police headquarters. Some days ago Chief Williams received a letter from the Jacksonville police stating that a negro by the name of Ben Scott was in that city and they were confident that he was wanted in Wilmington on some serious charge. Chief Williams came to the conclusion that the negro was Ben Barge and sent the Jacksonville officers a description of him, identification as stated in the telegram being the result.

The matter was turned over to the county authorities and as soon as requisition papers can be secured Deputy Harvey Cox will leave for Florida for Barge. The prisoner, stated the telegram, is willing to return without requisition papers, but the local authorities do not care to take chances. It will probably be some time next week before the papers will be ready.

ON TO WASHINGTON!

Excursion Over Coast Line on June 21. Reservations Being Made.

The Atlantic Coast Line's excursion to Washington is assuming proportions scarcely expected when it was first announced. The announcement of a $7.50 round trip rate from Wilmington to the Nation's capital is an innovation, and many parents are contemplating taking their children for the educational advantages it presents while others are going along for sightseeing a few days and still others for recreation, fun and frolic. Every comfort and refining influence will be thrown around the trip by the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line to merit the patronage of Wilmington's most select people. Excursions to the Nation's capital will be run from many points on the Coast Line the same day and a great number of Southerners in Washington that day is assured.

ORDER OF HOO-HOOS TO MEET

Concatenation Tonight on "Roof" of Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach—Prominent Lumbermen Will be Present.

A special concatenation of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, the well known lumbermen's fraternal and social organization, will be held this evening "on the roof" of the Seashore Hotel, at Wrightsville Beach, and between 40 and 50 prominent members of the order from all this section of the State together with ten or fifteen candidates for initation are expected. In addition to the regular "seance" on the roof, there will be the usual "feed," etc., and the "old cats" and "kittens" are expecting the times of their lives. All members of the order in Wilmington and in this section are cordially invited to be present.

Vicegerent Snark F. G. Buhmann, for the Eastern District of North Carolina, at whose call the concatenation will be held, arrived in the city last night from his home at Ayden, N. C., and will have everything in readiness when the alarm is sent in. Invitations have been sent out to more than 200 and these are expected by a larg majority. There will be big times at the Seashore tonight and the Vicegerent Snark will be assisted in the work by some of the best known Hoo-Hoo people in the territory. A number of the Hoo-Hoos will come to spend some time at the beach and not a few of them will be accompanied by their wives, daughters and friends.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The case against John Law, colored, charged with false pretense, the trial of which was set for yesterday morning before Justice Bornemann, was continued until Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. H. deW. Rapalje left yesterday for Beaufort, N. C., where he goes to make surveys for an extensive drainage system for that town. He will be away for about ten days. Mr. A. D. O'Brien, of Wilmington, has the contract for the laying of a sewerage system for the town.

—At the closing session of the Coast Line Surgeons Wednesday afternoon a resolution was adopted expressing the appreciation of the members for the courtesies extended by the Tidewater Power Company, the local press, the local medical fraternity and the citizens generally.

—Southport Herald: "County Commissioner Asa Dosher has presented his resignation as a member of the Board and Mr. I. D. Harrelson, of Town Creek township is elected to fill the unexpired term and he will be appointed by the Clerk of Court."

—Mitchell Williamson, colored, was before Justice Bornemann yesterday for assault upon his wife, Sarah Williamson. The justice found him guilty of the charge and sentenced him to 30 days on the county roads. The defendant was also tried on a peace warrant and the justice required of him a bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for six months, which he could not give.

AUDIENCE WELL PLEASED

Big Baseball Entertainment Last Night—The Programme.

A large and appreciative audience attended the big baseball entertainment in the Academy of Music last night. The programme arranged was a delightful one and was carried out in a splendid manner, each of the participants winning a liberal share of the honors of the evening.

The Sunbeam Club of Miss Alderman's Select School presented "The Three Chauffeurs," which was given at the entertainment by her school some nights ago, and was as enthusiastically received as on the first occasion. In addition a vaudeville bill was given and among the participants were some of the best dramatic and musical talent of the city. "Judge" G. W. Bornemann, who always entertains with his accordeon, had his instrument in splendid working order last night and he received a grand ovation from the audience. The other numbers of the programme, each of which was heartily enjoyed and executed in an admirable manner, were: "Casey at the Bat," Miss Jean LaFrage; Illustrated songs, Mrs. P. W. Wells; "Miss-Kiss-Kiss," Master William Penny and Marion Summerell; "Principal Baseball Game," Miss Houston; Piana solo, Zeb Winner; Recitation, Master Jas. F. Woolvin.

CUSTOM HOUSE SITE

Collector of Customs B. F. Keith has spent the past two days in Washington, D. C., on business in connection with the new Custom House, which project of all those in North Carolina now in progress, seems to be tied up on account of the government's inability to get the desired site at what its agents consider a fair price. While it is now pretty definitely settled that the present site of the Custom House will be used with what adjoining property may be acquired there is danger that the scheme of purchasing the entire western frontage of the block with an extensive scheme of grounds about the new building will be abandoned and only one corner of the block will be purchased. Mr. Keith, it is understood, is very desirous of carrying through his original idea of getting the government to purchase through the entire block, but the government intimates that the property values are not equitable and rather than resort to condemnation, it will use only a part of the property and this, it is said, is what takes Mr. Keith to Washington on this trip. It is to be sincerely hoped that the mission of the collector to Washington will be successful.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Annual Gathering of the Members of St. John's Episcopal Church. Reports of the Work Done the Past Year.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. John's Episcopal Church, corner Third and Red Cross streets, was held in the Parish House last night, and most interesting reports of the year's work were submitted by the rector, Rev. Wm. E. Cox, and the officers of the various branches of the church.

The year closing May 31st has been the most successful from every viewpoint in the history of the congregation, which fact the members have just cause to be proud of. The church has made great progress in a spiritual, financial and numerical sense. During the rectorship of Rev. Wm. E. Cox, who has been here only about a year and a half, the church has grown in membership nearly 50 per cent., the attendance upon both preaching services and the Sunday School has greatly increased and many improvements made upon the church and the Parish House. When Mr. Cox came here there were only 126 members, while the enrollment at present is 182, all but eight of whom are residing here and are active in the affairs of the church. One of the greatest improvements in the church building, which is the only house of worship in the diocese of Gothic architecture, is the recent addition of the choir room which was opened last night for the inspection of the members of the church. The addition has been erected at a cost of more than $600 and it was announced last night that most of the money had been raised for it. It is proving invaluable and the members wonder how they got on so long without it. There have also been numerous improvements made in the Parish House by the various organizations of the church.

Mr. Cox announced that during the year there had been 11 confirmations and 31 accessions otherwise, making a total of 42 received for the year; there were four deaths and four removals. There were 250 services during the year and this year there will be more as the rector stated that he would begin today a more strict observance of the festivals of the church. Today is St. Barnabas' day and services will be held in the church at 11 o'clock this morning. The rector has also conducted mission services in another town during the week days and expects to hold a greater number of such services this year. He reported the finances of the church as being far better than the members expected at the beginning of the year, the parish having paid into the treasury for all purposes, $2,742.57, the diocesan contributions, $285.97, the extra diocesan contributions, $406.28, making a total of $3,434.82, which was pronounced exceedingly good for a church of the membership of St. John's. In speaking of the future of the church, Mr. Cox urged a deeper spirituality, closer observance of the festivals of the church, strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and more liberal contributions.

Col. T. C. James and Mr. Wm. McLeod made interesting reports of the annual council meeting held in Washington, N. C., a few weeks ago, and announced with pleasure that the next meeting would be held with St. John's church which has not entertained the diocese since 1874.

Prof. Washington Catlett, superintendent of the Sunday School, reported increased interest in Sunday School work and some needed improvements in the Sunday School room, closing with an appeal to the male members of the congregation to take a greater interest in that branch of church work.

Encouraging reports were received from the Brotherhoods of the Church, St. John's and St. Andrew's, and from the various guilds and auxiliaries.

ELOCUTION CLASS TONIGHT

The entertainment of Mrs. Curtis-Arnall North's elocution class at the Academy of Music tonight will doubtless attract a very large audience and that the evening will be most pleasantly spent goes without saying. The proceeds will go to charity. The programme as outlined in The Star a few days ago will be carried out in full and will prove enjoyable to all who attend.

Tickets for adults have been on sale for several days at 25 cents but children will be admitted for 15 cents. It has not been thought necessary to have reserved seats. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

HOW TO GAIN HEALTHY FLESH.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company Advise Use of Samose.

While thinness may not be a disease, yet it is in reality a condition that needs attention. Under the nourishing power of Samose healthy, natural flesh will soon be attained.

This remarkable flesh-forming food strengthens the system generally and builds up the fleshy tissues so that good, natural plumpness results.

An ounce of flesh is better than a pound of theory. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. believes that the best possible demonstration of the flesh-forming powers of Samose is to have it tried by his customers, and to induce them to use it, he offers to pay for the Samose in case it does not give satisfaction. No stronger proof than this can be given of their faith in it. they have seen hundreds who were weak, thin and scrawny, become plump, robust and strong, solely through the use of Samose.

If you are thin or in poor health, take advantage of this offer. You run no risk whatever, and the chances are 98 out of 100 that you will notice a gain in weight after using Samose for a week or tendays.

JOINT COMMITTEE AT WORK.

Contract for Map and Estimates on Sewerage System Given Out.

At a joint meeting of the sewerage committee from the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance Wednesday afternoon the contract for making a topographical map of the city and for the inspection of the plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Company with an estimate of its present value, was given to Major E. W. VanC. Lucas and Messrs. Raymond Humphreys and H. deW. Rapalje. There was only one other bidder for the work. The engineers will go right to work on the task and will be ready to make a report within 30 days.

The committee from the Board of Aldermen is composed of the regular sewerage committee, Alderman Hinton, Willard and Yopp, with Aldermen Ellis and Bonitz as special appointees, while Messrs. M. J. Heyer, Jesse Wilder, W. B. Cooper, H. C. McQueen and M. G. Tiencken compose the committee from the Board of Audit and Finance.

The purpose of the committee is to purchase the present system and make the necessary improvements and extensions if it is found feasible. The report of the engineers will probably determine the matter of the purchase of the system.

CHARLIE LEHR ARRESTED.

Wadesboro, June 9.—Charlie Lehr, a former S. A. L. conductor, was arrested in New Orleans recently and has been placed in jail at Columbia, S. C. He is in custody on charge of robbing the railway company of cigarettes, hams and a quantity of wine while articles were in transit. The alleged theft took place in 1908. When he was arrested he gave bond of $40 and left the State. Detectives located and picked him up at New Orleans.

M. L. WINNER HEAVILY FINED

Defendant in Liquor Case Required to Pay a Fine of $200 and the Costs. Judgment Suspended in One Case—Other Cases.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning M. L. Winner, who conducts a store at corner of Front and Dock streets, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling intoxicating liquors in two cases and asked the mercy of the court. He was represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq. Recorder Furlong fined him $200 and taxed him with the costs in one case and in the other judgment was suspended with the understanding that if he was arrested again for a similar offense judgment in this case would be prayed.

The defendant was accused of selling whiskey to Policeman Saunders and a negro by the name of Stephen Jenkins.

In the cases against Thomas DeVine and Paul Jones, colored, for selling whiskey, the latter not being the manufacturer of the well known brand of whiskey by that name, however, County Attorney Marsden Bellamy announced that he would take a nol pros. and the case was dismissed.

The case of John Redd, a well known white man, who was arrested Wednesday night on the charge of selling whiskey to Lee Justice, was continued until a later date. It will probably come up for hearing today.

John Williams, alias "Country John," was arraigned on two charges, one for disorderly conduct and the other for wilful trespass. He was found guilty in both cases but was let off upon payment of costs.

Wheeler Jenkins, colored, was before the court on two charges the warrant being sworn out by his wife. She charged assault and battery and non-support, but when the hour for trial arrived she became sympathetic and asked the court to allow her to withdraw the warrants, which was done, she paying the costs in both cases.

James McNeill, colored, who was convicted at Tuesday's session of treaspass, being caught under the house of Annie Lowe, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve 30 days on the county roads, yesterday withdrew the appeal he had taken and paid the fine and costs of the action. Yesterday's session of court lasted less than an hour.

MR. GEORGE W. PENNY.

Mr. George W. Penny, who recently disposed of his interest in the firm of W. J. Mr. Penny will carry a staple line, such as has always been his specialty, and with an all new and carefully selected stock, he is better than ever able to meet the requirements of the trade. Mr. C. F. Williams, who for four years was with the firm of W. J. Penny & Co., and is one of the best known and most capable salesmen in the city, will be with Mr. G. W. Penny in the capacity of head salesman.

Suit Instituted Against Laundry.

Through her counsel, W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., a suit entitled Lula Russ against J. T. Harper, doing business as the Wilmington Steam Laundry, was begun in the Superior Court yesterday. The complaint has not been filed, but it is understood that damages in the neighborhood of $5,000 will be asked for personal injuries received by the plaintiff in February of this year while at work in the defendant's laundry, Front and Orange streets.

New Wilmington Enterprise.

The articles of incorporation of the Willson Paint & Paper Company, of this city, were returned to the Clerk of the Superior Court yesterday from Raleigh. The place of business of the firm will be at 202 Princess street and the object is to manufacture, buy and sell paints, deal in wall papers and other house decorative articles. The incorporators are W. A. Willson, Jr., A. W. Pate and Eustace Norfleet.

At the Bijou.

"The Salvation Army Lass," a beautiful story of the battle between good and evil, is the attractive offering at the Bijou today. The scenes are in strict accord with the Army's form of ceremony as the makers received during the production the hearty co-operation of the officers of the Army of New York. A strong point in this subject is that it depicts real life and real people.

—Millboro, June 9.—One of the largest cloudbursts and hail storm passed through this country last evening that was ever known in this country. It lasted about one hour. The hail literally destroyed everythnig in its path. It hailed for about one hour and the stones were as large as quail eggs. The wheat is down flat on the ground and lots of it beat off of the heads, while the corn and vegetables in the gardens are completely destroyed. Beans, tomatoes, cabbage and other vegetables are cut smooth with the ground. It killed a lot of young turkeys for Captain Lineberry and blowed down his tool house. Fortunately he had his binder in the wheat field but a mowing machine and corn drill was in the house and received some damage. It reached from Millboro to Lineberry station, a distance of five miles, and everything in its path is about destroyed.

Game at Whiteville.

Whiteville, N. C., June 10.—Whiteville and Boardman crossed bats in a game here yesterday, featured by sensational playing, that would have done credit to any professional team, Boardman being defeated by the score of 3 to 0. In the first, Smith for the locals walked, and went to third on White's beautiful drive to left. At this stage Ardrey for the locals secured a nice single by third. This ended the scoring, Boardman reaching third only once. The features of the game were Council's catching, Tucker's pitching, White's work at short, and a spectacular drive by Powell to make second in the fourth. Score:

England's Aristocracy In Public Life.

The more prominent one is by birth, wealth or position the more it is looked upon as incumbent upon such a one to take an active part in local and national affairs. The masses have grown to feel that they can depend upon the classes to lead, and to lead courageously and wisely. Though England has become perhaps more democratic in certain ways, it is still very evident that the Englishman likes a gentleman to lead him. I am told that in the army this is made unmistakably evident. It is not mere snobbery, though there may be a touch of it, but it is the centuries old instinct of the English to have faith in noblesse oblige as a real factor in life.—Scribner's Magazine.

The cost of getting a new boarder is not often greater than the cost of one insertion of a Business Local. Sometimes two or three insertions are needed.

NEGRO COMMITS SUICIDE

Apparently Without Any Excure Whatever Mitchell Crawford Takes His Own Life—Inquest Not Thought Necessary.

Without any reason whatever so far as the police know, Mitchell Crawford, colored, 28 years old, who has been employed on the local yards of the Atlantic Coast Line for some time, shot and killed himself early yesterday afternoon at the home of Rosa Hawkins, 505 North Ninth street, with whom he boarded. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, deemed an inquest unnecessary as it appeared to him to be a clear case of suicide and permission for the removal of the body was given.

At 1:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon a telephone message was received at police headquarters stating that a man had been shot on North Ninth street. The message was received by Acting Sergeant E. L. Smith, who dispatched Mounted Officer C. G. Jones to the scene. When the officer arrived the negro was dead and his body was on the bed. There was a negro man in the room and he was placed under surveillance by the officer, who at first suspected murder. In the meantime the coroner was telephoned for and arrived. He, too, suspected foul play at first, but he soon gave up this theory. The negro had a pistol shot wound in the left temple and it appeared to the coroner unlikely that he would have shot himself on that side, but after being informed that the negro was left-handed and hearing the statement of the negro under guard he concluded that it was suicide. The negro stated that he was in the room with Crawford, who had been drinking some during the morning, and that the latter was fooling with a pistol; that he admonished him to let the weapon alone; that he stepped on the porch for a second and as he reached the place he was going he heard a pistol shot and, turning around, saw that Crawford had shot himself. A circumstance which made it appear that murder had been committed was the fact that the weapon which ended the life of the negro was found on a table between some glasses five or six feet away from where it was said the shot was fired.

The negro who was in the room just before the shooting, whose full name was not learned by the police, said that he had always been on the most friendly terms with the deceased, not an unpleasant word having passed between them. He nor anyone else had ever heard Crawford speak of taking his own life nor did they know of any reason, real or imaginary, why he should. The body will be taken to South Carolina, the former home of the deceased, today for burial.

FAKE MEAT INSPECTION

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Louis, June 10.—After 18 months service as a United States meat inspector in East St. Louis packing houses, J. F. Harms has resigned, he says, writing a letter to Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, demanding an investigation of the meat inspection system at the national stock yards. Harms asserts that he resigns because he could not tolerate conditions and that inspectors in Chicago for the Bureau of Animal Industry were too lenient with the packers. Harms in his letter says:

"The inspection at the National stockyards, Illinois, is costing the people approximately $100,000 a year, and it is not actually worth $1, to from the inspector in charge to the inspector actually doing the work on the floors that they are getting too many the grading, it means that the whole thing is a farce. Mr. Secretary, the packers are getting today from 70 to 80 per cent. of what ought to be condemned and destroyed.

"I have seen from 1,200 to 1,500 pounds of lard spill and run into an open sewer in the floor, the sewer outlet quickly blocked and said lard taken up from the floor and out of the sewer both of which were unclean and unsanitary; and your doctors passed same to the packers over the protest of the inspector on that floor and it went to the public marked 'U. S. Inspected and Passed.'"

"Some of the filthiest things imaginable are practiced in the sausage departments, such as using bladders for casings without thorough washing or cleaning, the use of filthy tripe in sausage, the use of slimy hog stomachs for casings or containers, the using of meats that have fallen on the floor and are taken up and used without any pretense of cleaning.

"These are all permitted by those in charge. If an inspector calls their attention to any of the wrongs, he is told as I was, that the people who eat such stuff are too lazy to prepare anything for themselves and ought to have such stuff.

"I will give you another instance that happened elsewhere. The meat inspector in the department held 6,000 or 7,000 of cured meats for being sour, and, mind you, four or five other inspectors were called and they all pronounced the meat sour. Your Doctor Meaders released it to the packer.

—Kenansville News: We learn that Irish potatoes are bringing a good price. This is good news to Duplin county growers and potatoes have been a leading crop with us for many years, Cucumbers, beans, white potatoes, corn, pepper, canteloupes and watermelons are yet to follow. With all these crops now to ship and with fair prices the growers of this trucking belt will bring many a thousand dollars into this section. Strawberries only paid fairly well and the acreage was shorter this year. A good many farmers have plowed up their berries and planted other crops in their stead. Tobacco will also bring a great deal of money into Duplin and the prospects never looked so bright for a large crop. The cotton acreage is also above the average this year.

—What grounds for complaint have the North Carolina sorehead Republicans over the appointment of Judge Connor by President Taft, instead of any one of the candidates from the Republican pie brigade, when the confirmation of the appointment by the United States Senate was by a unanimous vote? Have they any ground at all upon which to stand, when their members of the highest law-making branch of the government agree with the President that his judgment in appointing Connor, instead of any Republican, was right?—Sampson Democrat.

MR. AND MRS. PRESTON B. ROBBINS BEREAVED.

(Communicated.)

For nearly six weeks past Marion Bridgers, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Preston B. Robbins, of 622 South Fifth street, has been very ill. He succumbed yesterday evening at 5:45 o'clock. Marion was a sweet baby and was the light of the home. He was born at Darlington, S. C., December 19th, 1908, and would have been 18 months old the 19th of the present month had it not been the will of an all-knowing God that the death angel should be sent to darken the home and take the soul to the God who gave it. 'Twas hard, so hard to say good-bye to one so dear to us, but still we feel that God knows best and does all things well. The kind and tender physician who watched and did his duty well, could not demand of God a soul, nor a life. One less at Home! The charmed circle broken; a dear face missed day by day from its accustomed place; but charmed and saved, and perfected by Grace. One more in Heaven! One more at Home; that home where separation cannot be; that house whence none is missed eternally. Lord Jesus grant us all a place with Thee! At home in heaven.

The funeral of Marion will be conducted at 4:30 P. M. and the interment will be at Bellevue cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. G. A. Martin, of Southside Baptist Church, and Dr. A. D. McClure, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The Rocky Mount Record says Capt. John W. Blount will establish a daily and weekly paper at Scotland Neck.

—Winston-Salem, June 9.—A hail storm in the western part of the county last night played havoc with many corn and tobacco crops.

—Tarboro, June 9.—Rose Westbrook, colored, has escaped jail. She is charged with house-burning. She was a "trusty" around the jail and seizing an opportunity, took "French leave."

—Sampson Democrat: On Saturday evening, the 5th, there was some hail in the Seven Mile section (upon Big Coharie), which beat up tobacco, cotton and other crops. We have not learned the scope of it, nor the extent of the damage.

—Greenville, June 9.—The board of trustees of East Carolina Teachers' Training School will meet here on Friday next to consider report of the executive committee and to complete arrangements for opening the school this Fall. Superintendent of Public Instruction Joyner has issued the call and directs attention to its importance.

—Sampson Democrat: Mrs. William Bass, of Parkersburg, and her little daughter, Bettie, came up last Saturday to see her husband, who is in jail here awaiting trial upon the charge of murder. A Mr. Carter accompanied them to town. Mrs. Bass has been before to see her husband, each time taking the little girl along, to whom the father is devoted, and who is a beautiful child.

—Goldsboro, June 9.—A shocking accident occurred on the Atlantic Coast Line, in the northern end of the city yesterday. Will Williams, colored, a switchman, got his foot hung in a frog, while attempting to throw a switch, and fell as the backing cars was on him. The car passed over and crushed his thigh. He was taken to the hospital, but there is slight chance of recovery.

—Rocky Mount, June 9—Two negroes, Haywood Holt and Sam Simms, of Fremont, charged with breaking into a government bonded warehouse there last week and stealing a barrel of whiskey, belonging to the surplus stock of the distillery that operated there before prohibition went into effect, have been brought to this city and lodged in jail to await trial at court.

—Raleigh News and Observer: One of the most romantic marriages ever held in Raleigh, even though the participants were of a dusky shade, was the marriage of James Rogers and Lucy Ligon in Pullen Park Tuesday night. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Yearby under an arc light. Ligon is a yellow negro 22 years of age, while his bride is 35 years old, is black and weighs 250 pounds.

—Sampson Democrat: The fine little patch of Irish potatoes of Mr. G. A. Waller, on College street, produced 28 barrels of nice ones. There was barely one-half acre in potatoes. He shipped them.——The first corn shipped from Clinton this season went forward on the 5th, in a lot of five packages. Mr. Joseph Nolly was the shipper. Others are shipping now, however, but his was on the 5th, remember.

—Kenansville News: While at Warsaw a few days ago the large addition to the tobacco warehouse there was called to our attention. One only has to glance up the street, leading west from the depot to see this long and wide structure that is being made ready for the opening season. The tobacco growers of this and adjoining counties are going to find this warehouse one of the best in the State. Our farmers should encourage it in every way possible because it means the building up of Duplin county.

—Charlotte Observer, June 10.—Judge Platt D. Walker received a telegram last night announcing the death at 8 o'clock of Mrs. Stephen Wall, of Rockingham, a sister of Mrs. F. O. Landis, of this city. Mrs. Wall was about 50 years of age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Adams, of Carthage, and Miss Johnsie Wall, of Rockingham. Mrs. W. T. Jones, of Carthage, another sister, also survives her. Mrs. Wall was one of the most estimable and beloved women in Richmond county and had many friends in Charlotte. The funeral will take place this afternoon at the home.

—Elkin June 9.—The cherry crop is much better than at first expected. They are now ripening and a great many are being brought to market, where they find a ready sale. The blackberry crop is full and there will be lots of apples and a fair crop of peaches in some sections. The wheat crop will be excellent if nothing happens to it. The farmers ought to be happy and not complain, for everything seems to be in their favor. There has been no time in the past forty years when all kinds of farm products brought as high prices as they are doing now, and yet there is not enough to meet the demands.

—Asheville, June 9.—Carrying a diploma, a certificate of good moral character, and last, but not least, a $10 bill, 127 young doctors fell in line this morning and awaited their turn to register in order to take the examinations of the State Board of Medical Examiners for license to practice medicine in North Carolina. In the crowd that assembled in the ball room of the Battery Park Hotel, where men ranging in age from about 45 years down to those just having reached their majority. Included in the total are two ladies, one of the applicants residing in Asheville, 15 negro men and one negro woman. The first examination will be held tomorrow.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 10.—The cotton market was somewhat irregular at the start but ruled generally firm during the middle session and closed steady, net unchanged to 7 points higher.

The opening was steady at a decline of 4 points to an advance of 1 point. July being 4 points lower, while the new crop was 1 point lower to 1 point higher; rather better than due on the cables. The weather map indicated generally favorable conditions in the South, but advices from cotton goods were bullish. There seemed to be comparatively little cotton offering for either spot or future delivery, and the market soon firmed up on a moderate demand from spot interests, scattered covering, and a little buying by houses with Southern connections.

There was no aggressive bull support, and trading did not become at all active, but offerings were very light and prices worked steadily higher until the general list showed a net advance of about 8 to 12 points with October selling at 10.82 and December at 10.84, or 20 to 22 points above the low level of yesterday and within 16 or 17 points of the highest prices for the season.

A report that the market would be put to 11 cents before the end of the week received general circulation but was followed by considerable realizing and the market sold off from the top toward the close. Possibly apprehensions of unsettled weather in the Mississippi valley based upon the forecasts for unsettled weather in the western belt and local showers in Mississippi had some influence during the day, but so far as official reports went the weather current in the belt during the past 24 hours was considered good. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts at the ports today 4,559 against 9,334 last week an d8,007 last year; for the week 55,000 bales against 59,361 last week and 64,544 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 2,606 bales against 3,452 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 11.30; middling gulf 11.55; sales 250 bales. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 10.—The cotton goods primary market continues strong and active. Fine cotton goods are becoming firm. There is a steadier demand from jobbers for domestics. Cotton yarns are firmer and a slightly largen business is reported. Carpets have a large sale in the largest agency. Linings for the closing trade have been closely sold for the season.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 10.—The action of the stock market today indicated the resumption of some important operations on the long side. The effect was to reassure sentiment among the board room operators and traders. Transactions fell below the recently prevailing volume and the conspicuous buying was restricted to a few stocks. Signs of profit taking sales were still in evidence. Union Pacific continued a leader of the upward movement in contrast with the sluggish movement of Southern Pacific. Northern Pacific was even more prominent than Union Pacific. Its rapid advance was accounted for by rumors that steps were being taken to introduce this stock to the Paris bourse. Denials from bankers interested that any hitch had occurred in the plans for trading in United States Steel in Paris, as was rumored with depressing effect yesterday, relieved United States Steel from pressure and it more than recovered its quarterly dividend during the day. The stock was helped also by the report of the re-opening of the Ensley, Ala., steel rail mills. Feeling regarding the steel trade continues confident and hopeful. Copper industrials made only moderate response to a good showing of May statistics.

A decline in the price of copper warrants in the London market was an offsetting influence. The reports of crop conditions were regarded favorably. There was some apprehension expressed in stock market circles that the recent course of litigation against the American Sugar Refining Company and the agitation for prosecution by the Federal government under the anti-trust law might revive anxiety on the part of investors in corporations and prejudice the movement to attract foreign capital into them. The firmer tone of the money market was of only slight deterrent effect on the speculation in stocks. The irregularity of the market increased as the day advanced.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $6,410,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 868,100 shares.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

uniforms. Some were cleanly shaven, there were many empty sleeves and scores hobbled along on wooden legs. But all marched proudly and bravely with the fire of a great faith in their eyes and the pride of a great, though lost cause, in their step.

The heat was intense, the culmination of three days of the warmest weather memphisions say, they have had in years. The sun beat down pitiless upon them as they halted in the streets and was thrown back into the faces of the heavily clad old veterans as they marched along. At the suggestion of the parade committee, the line of march was cut down about one mile and the countermarch was elliminated. Commanders of divisions and brigades directed that the older and feebler members of their commands should drop out. But officers were compelled to report that they could find no men old enough or feeble enough to take advantage of the indulgence.

Bands from all over the South, 25 of them, were interspersed here and there through the parade and when steps lagged or aged limbs trembled and seemed unable to keep the step, the stirring notes of 'Dixie,' 'My Maryland" or "The Girl I left Behind Me' were sufficient to send the blood coursing through the old veins as it did fifty years ago and lend strength to the muscles that age had weakened. Everywhere were flags, the Stars and Bars of the lost cause, the tattered battle flags of the States that chose Davis as President, the guideons of decimated batteries of artillery and and the Pennants that Forests' splendid cavalrymen had often followed into battle and some times to death on the field. The parade was lead by Major General John H. McDowell, grand marshal and the veterans, marching by the divisions in which they served, followed behind. At the head of each division rode the sponsors and maids of honor, beautiful Southern girls, attired charmingly and wearing the huge crimson shroulder knots that told of their proud possession. Following the regular divisions came the survivors of Forest's cavalry corps. Soldierly and masterly they sat, their mounts, gray, clad with the flaunting yellow trimming which denoted their arm of the service.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans, several thousand strong closed the parade. They, too, were accompanied by a host of beautiful young women as sponsors and maids of honor, while behind them rode the official chaperones.

At a meeting of the recently constituted executive council of the Sons of Confederate Veterans today, Memphis was retained as the temporary headquarters of the confederation, and Nathan Bedford Forest was named as temporary adjutant general. Permanent headquarters will be selected at a subsequent meeting of the executive council. Authority was also given the commanding officer to direct members of the council to attend State re-union and a committee was appointed to present a plan for the publishing of an official periodical.

J. Duhig, an aged Confederate veteran, and merchant of Dallas, Texas, overcome by the heat, died at a local hospital this afternoon.

DEATH OF VENERABLE DR. HALE.

Chaplain of the United States Senate Passed Away Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Boston, Mass., June 10.—The morning light was breaking as the venerable Rev. Edward Everett Hale, D. D., chaplain of the United States Senate, Unitarian divine, philanthropist, author, journalist and lover of peace, breathed his last today in his home in Roxbury.

Dr. Hale had been chaplain of the United States Senate since 1893. The news of his death reached the Senate early in the day and was received with a general expression of regret. Dr. Hale wore a long clerical robe when officiating in the Senate and made the prayer service impressive rather than perfunctory. It was his habit to repeat the Lord's prayer. Formerly he would ask the Senators to join with him in doing so. On account, however, of repeated failures to obtain a response, he at last desisted in this practice.

As long as he was able to do so, Dr. Hale made it a practice to visit Senators at their seats and he was personally known to all of them.

Orphanage Will be Established—Legal Proceedings Against Negroes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Hendersonville, N. C., June 10.—Clayton has made an offer of $10,000 and a tract of land as an inducement for the Knights of Pythias' orphanage. The matter of the selection of the site is left in the hands of the trustees, who were appointed as follows: Grand Chancellor Hackney, of Asheville, ex officio; Herbert Smith Pridgen ,of Durham, and Rev. Dr. P. R. Law, of Charlotte.

When a resolution was passed definitely deciding the question of establishing an orphanage the members expressed their approval by enthusiastic applause.

A resolution was passed instructing the judiciary committee to proceed legally against negroes using the name of Knights of Pythias and the insignia. Just before adjournment at 4 o'clock this afternoon a handsome watch was presented to retiring Grand Chancellor Webb.

Pitchers' Battle at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., June 10.—It was a spirited pitchers' battle between Raleigh and Wilson until the seventh inning today, when Wilson got in three hits on Pope, well bunched, so two runs were scored.

Wilson .....000 000 200—2 8 2
Raleigh .....000 000 100—1 9 1

Batteries—Ferrell and Holt; Pope and Erwin; time 1:50; umpire, Barre; attendance 1,250.

Giantr Get The Coin.

Golsboro, N. C., June 10.—Just before the Umpire called "play ball" today, the teams were called out in front of the Grandstand where Mr. George C. Royall, in a few well chosen words presented a five dollar note to each of the Giants, thanking them for the excellent work they are doing and assuring them that all Goldsboro is behind the team; "for better or for worse." The money thus gracefully presented was raised by popular subscription among the fans and citizens generally as a token of their appreciation of the excellent playing of the members of the team both individually and collectively.

Inability to connect with Hallman's delivery at opportune times and the excellent fielding of the visitors were responsible for the dose of whitewash the Giants got for their part in today's contest. Score:

Fayetteville ....100 000 003—4 7 0
Goldsboro .. ...000 000 000—0 5 1

Summary—Stolen bases, Lohr; bases on balls, by Sparks 1; struck out, by Hallman 6, by Sparks 5; umpire, McLaughlin; time 1:40; attendance 700.

Diamond Dust

Kite caught a beautiful game.

They came—They saw—and they conquered.

Come on, boys; take a bracer! (This has no reference to prohibition!)

Sharp's error in dropping an infant throw in the 8th was a costly one.

The new men worked well. Nichols, first baseman, made a clean double unassisted.

Wilson has signed Suitor, second sacker on Trinity for the past few seasons.

The feature of the game was the Umpire, but, as Bill McEachern said: "He's got to learn."

Capt. Smith was marathoning some when he tagged Johnson on his unsuccessful race home.

Sexton was touched up quite freely but his support was not very encouraging, to say the least.

If we expect to cop the rag a second time, it will take a classier grade of ball than the fans witnessed yesterday.

Every game played here clearly demonstrates the slowness of the local outfield, and the attention it badly needs in the way of a dressing of some kind.

The management made a popular announcement at the grounds that hereafter ladies would be admitted to the grand stand free. Let all the fanabelles beautify the park with their presence.

The Sailors' quick and heady infield work in the first innings of the game yanked them out of a couple of bad holes; but this was spoiled before the game was over by playing that left a saffron taste.

It is reported from Wilson that a scout from Washington, D. C., has been scenting around that vicinity for some days, and will visit other cities on the circuit before reporting to his management.

A suggestion: Until Brodie gets his leg in, and if Streaser is well enough to work (In running bases for Brodie he didn't cover ground like a sick man), play Streaser in left, Jayes in centre, and Brodie in right.

TAFT ADDRESSES CATHOLICS

Declared There Should Be No Distinctions Because of Religion.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washrington June 10.—That "complete church emulation" is a good thing and that there should be in this country "no invidious distinctions in elections because of religious belief' were the key notes of the address made tonight by President Taft before the Congress of Roman Catholic Missionaries, now in session in this city.

The President spoke principally of the work of settling in the Philippines, the difficulties caused by the close relationship there of church and government. He expressed the opinion that in the end the church would be strengthened by the change there "as freedom" and toleration and the complete separation of chuch and state have strengthened the church in this country.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. BeHamy's.
